Farm Meet

9 Jan 1975
Mr. and Mrs. Emer Wilson of Midway were among nearly 100 Utah farm leaders who left for a four-day American Farm Bureau Federation convention in New Orleans. Many of them will fly to Mexico and Guatemala, afterward for an agricultural study tour. Leading the delegation was Elmo Hamilton, Riverton, president of the Utah Farm Bureau Federation.

Major purpose of the January 5-8 meeting is to establish national policy on key farm and non-farm issues. National speakers will also address the audience on vital topics, including William E. Simon, U.S. secretary of the treasury, and U.S. Senator John C. Stennis of Mississippi.

Top entertainment is part of the program, too. The famed Al Hirt and his Dixieland Band will entertain during an evening awards and recognition program, and top performers from many of the states will display the talent that won their state Talent Find Contests.

Utah's representative will be Mrs. Sherry Bingham of Honeyville, Box Elder county, a flute soloist who won the Beehive state's largest talent contest with a rendition of "Flight of the Bumblebee."

The 70 plus Farm Bureau leaders from Utah who will participate in the Agricultural study tour will fly to Mexico City and later to Guatemala to visit farms and farm supply factories as well as historic ruins believed to be Book of Mormon sites. They will return to Utah on January 16th.
